- Description: K-Week is a large-scale event held by Korean Student Association with KLASO and KIFA. The event starts on the 15th of April and spans through the next week. The events include: the playing of traditional Korean games, singing and dancing to Korean music, eating traditional Korean foods, a talent show at Foellinger auditorium, an athletic competition, and a career seminar day. These events are hosted with the focus on providing exposure to Korean culture for all, having fun and inclusive events, and celebrating the 100th year anniversary since the first Korean student at UIUC. Contingency Funding Application Review:

App Number	Funding Type	RSO Name	Amount Requested	Amount Allocated	Vote
150814	Contingency	Gamma Phi Omega International Sorority, Inc.	$1,000.00	$1,000.00	8-0-1

- App No. 150814- Gamma Phi Omega International Sorority, Inc.
  - Description: RSO originally had an application approved for an event, a spoken word performance by Danyeli Rodriguez Del Orbe (application 137725). The performer had emergency throat surgery that prevented her from being able to perform and the RSO must find another performer. SORF cannot grant an alternative speaker for the original application because no alternate performers were listed in the application. RSO has found an alternative performer (Roxana Pardo Garcia – La Roxay) and would like partial funding for the same event (Xingona; A Journey of Community, Family, and Healing) with a different performer based on the reasonably unforeseen circumstances.
  - Funding type: Contingency
  - Amount Requested: $1,000.00
  - Amount Allocated: $1,000.00
  - Meeting notes: Vote of 8-0-1 to fund at standard.
